Date: January, 2017

Message from Inspector .....

I am Inspector HAYES and have command of Norwich South. We are investigating a series of commercial burglaries in the Lakenham area and are pursuing an identified suspect. We are developing intelligence to support Operation Gravity, targeting individuals involved in the supply of drugs. We are developing information from our local community who are our eyes and ears. Further work is ongoing with the new Community Engagement Strategy where publicly voted priorities will be addressed and held accountable at the Priority Setting Meetings.

Is speeding an issue? Contact me to discuss a Community Speedwatch Scheme—binnsa@norfolk.pnn.police.uk

Are you concerned about drug dealing? Call 101 anonymously to report it and we will deal with it appropriately. Operation Gravity is a main focus for Norwich Police.

Follow Norwich Police and Norwich Facebook for live information and updates. Messages can also be sent if appropriate.

What is happening in your area

The Digital Priority Setting Process is underway with a public vote through social media. This shapes the way we police your area. Future results will be posted below. Get involved through our social media platforms. Contact me for further information if you are unsure, PC Adam BINNS.

Neighbourhood Priorities

Burglaries and theft from motor vehicle offences. We are concentrating our efforts on identifying suspects. We have dedicated officers working to gather evidence and bring those responsible to justice. I would urge people to secure their properties to prevent opportunistic thieves and to call police should you see anything suspicious.
