Message from Inspector HAYES.....

This month we are collecting information from the community as part of our new Priority Setting Process. This format replaces the previous SNAP meetings and is run digitally, supported through our Social Media platforms. Page 2 gives a guide as to how to get involved. The consultation period is under way so feed your information to the local councillors to have your say. My teams have a strong community focus and this process will only enhance this relationship and ensure that our efforts are targeted. Thank you .

Message from your Engagement Officer

I am keen to establish contact with residents associations in Lakenham, Nelson and Town Close. Please contact me binnsa@norfolk.pnn.police.uk so that we can share information.

What is happening in your area

The Policing Priorities Process is underway. Councillors and key community contacts have been emailed requesting issues affecting your area. The deadline for this is 24th April. I will then assess the issues with Inspector HAYES and 4 will be selected to put to the priority vote. This is where you can get actively involved. Within a few days of that 24th deadline the voting will be live through Norwich Police Twitter and Facebook. If you have social media its easy to get involved. If not, please use my email address to register your vote.

Watch our social media accounts after 24th for this voting process.

Neighbourhood Priorities

We continue to conduct pro active patrols to tackle burglaries, particularly in the daytime. Once our priority Setting vote finishes we will have a set priority to target for the new period. This is your opportunity to get involved and shape what we deliver.
